

Pepsi Center

Denver, Colorado

Owner

COMSAT Inc.

Client/Architect

Populous

Completion Date

1999

Construction Cost

$180 million

Total Area

675,000 sf

Seating Capacity

18,007 (hockey)
19,155 (basketball)
17,417 (football)
20,000 (concert)

Number of Suites

95

Number of Concourses

3

Located at the edge of downtown Denver, the Pepsi Center is home to the NBA Denver Nuggets and NHL Colorado Avalanche. The facility also hosts concerts, arena football and indoor lacrosse. Thornton Tomasetti worked with the architect to develop a circular roof-column layout for the arena that created a unique 450-foot-span, tied-arch roof requiring only 17 psf of steel.